

Polling Place Review 2019

Electoral Registration and Administration Act 2013
Review of Polling Districts and Polling Places
(Parliamentary Elections) Regulations 2006
Electoral Administration Act 2006
Representation of People Act 1983 (Schedule A1)

Maidstone Borough Council is undertaking a Polling District and Polling Place Review as required by the above legislation. The purpose of the review is to ensure that all polling districts and polling places are, as far as possible, effective and convenient for voters and accessible to everyone.

Further information about the proposed changes is available at www.maidstone.gov.uk and at Maidstone Reception, King Street, Maidstone, where printed copies of the proposals are available to view.

Consultation closes: 16th May 2019

If you have any queries about this consultation please email: consultation@maidstone.gov.uk
All comments received during the consultation period will be considered as part of the review.

Please note: As this is a statutory public consultation all responses, including the respondents name and/or organisation, will be publicly available. Contact details will be removed. Your response and those of other people will be available to view at the Maidstone House Reception or on the council's website.
